Students Saving Lives - Join Be the Match registry!

Every three minutes someone is diagnosed with a blood cancer. For patients with blood cancers like leukemia or lymphoma, and other life threatening diseases, a cure exists. And that cure could be YOU!

Join us on Wednesday, March 29th from 10:00am-2:00pm in the lobby at the School of Public Health to join the National bone marrow registry. All you will do is fill out a form and swab your cheek. You could help one of the 14,000 patients who search for a donor every year. You will only be contacted in the future if you are found to be a match for a patient. Only 1 in every 500 people that join every actually donate. The most common donation process is very similar to giving plasma or platelets.

Are you looking for Summer Internships?

Then look no further! Make sure you check the Get A Handle newsletter weekly for newly added internship opportunities. This week we have added internships with the Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH) office of Women’s Health and Project Possible.

Join the Jefferson County Department of Health for Community Health Day

To commemorate our centennial and kick off Public Health Week, The Jefferson County Department of Health (JCDH) is hosting a Community Health Day Saturday, April 1, 2017 at Railroad Park from 12pm to 4pm. This event is FREE!

During the Community Health Day, you can take advantage of health screenings, educational health information, insight to various programs and services offered by JCDH as well as other partnering organizations and agencies. There will be activities, fun and games for kids, entertainment on the main stage, food trucks, giveaways, and so much more for the entire family to enjoy!

This Week in the School of Public Health

- UAB Lecture Series presents Timothy Alexander. This is the final lecture of the semester featuring Timothy Alexander! Tim is a UAB Alum with a passion for sports and leadership. You don't want to miss this inspiring story and tips on figuring out who you are as a student. This event is sponsored by the office of Student Involvement and Leadership. Doors open at 6:30pm on Monday, Mar 27th. The lecture is from 7:00pm - 8:30pm in the Hill Student Center Ballroom CD.

- LGBTQ Health and Wellness Fair - Join us to tour the Magic City Acceptance/Wellness Centers and learn more about LGBTQ and supportive services being offered in Birmingham! Free and open to the public! Event is March 29th from 4:00 PM - 7:00 PM at the Magic City Acceptance/Wellness Center.

- UAB Libraries to offer free online workshops in March. "EndNote Beyond the Basics [X8 for Windows]" on March 31st. See class descriptions, times, registration links and the complete spring on the website.

- Due this week! UAB invites you to join us at our NIH-funded short course on "Strengthening Causal Inference in Behavioral Obesity Research" on Mon.
This course will provide rigorous exposure to the key fundamental principles that guide a broad array of techniques used to identify causal relations between social and behavioral factors and variations in obesity. Details and the agenda are online. Limited travel scholarships are available to young investigators. Please apply prior to Fri. March 31.

- Due this week! Ireland Research Travel Award competition - The award is intended to provide up to $1000 in travel support for graduate students whose research requires them to travel to locations outside of Alabama to gain access to artifacts, study sites, research technology, or instrumentation not available at UAB. It is not intended for travel to research meetings to present research results. Both MS and PhD students can apply. Travel can take place anytime between June 1, 2017 and May 31, 2018. Applications due Friday, March 31, 2017 at 5 pm in room G03 of the Lister Hill Library. Announcement of the awardees will take place by April 14, 2017.

- Free resources on toxicity test methods - the PETA International Science Consortium Ltd., is an organization that promotes the development, validation, and global implementation of robust, human-relevant animal-free toxicity testing approaches. In light of the growing number of non-animal toxicological test methods and their increasing acceptance by regulatory agencies, as well as their benefits with regard to cost and relevance, we have developed free resources to help educators, researchers, and other stakeholders navigate their use. Factsheets describing regulatory-accepted methods to replace or reduce the use of animals in toxicity testing can be found here.
